In order to avoid disappointment, and to facilitate the exchange of Books, Subscribers are particularly requested to furnish ample List of the Works required for perusal.

A supply of Books, consisting chiefly of the works of the best Authors, and available for the immediate use of subscribers, is always kept in reserve. This stock is replenished from week to week. When the books desired are not in stock, they are, as a general rule, obtained from Mudie's in the weekly exchange.
