ORDER OF SERVICE.

OPENING SENTENCES:

THE REVEREND E. J. HOCKLY, M.A.

I AM the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. (St. John xi. 25, 26).

GREATER love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friend. (John xv. 13).

I HEARD a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; even so saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labours. (Rev. xiv. 13).

HYMN.

O GOD our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

Beneath the shadow of Thy throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thy arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly forgotten, as a dream ;
Dies at the opening day.

O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

THE LESSON: THE REVEREND G. UTTON.

From Eccles. xliv, and Hebrews xi.

LET us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. The Lord hath wrought great glory by them through his great power from the beginning. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies: Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent in their instructions: Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: Rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported. And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten.

Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore. The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise.

Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us ; looking unto Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who, for the joy that was set before Him, endured the Cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

MR. JOHN HOWARD, Agent General for Nova Scotia, representing the Imperial War Graves Commission, will ask the LORD LIEUTENANT to unveil the Memorial.

OF THE MEMORIAL

BY THE

LORD LIEUTENANT OF SURREY.

SILENCE OF REMEMBRANCE.

Dedication

BY THE RIGHT REVEREND THE

LORD BISHOP OF WINCHESTER, D.D.

TO the Glory of God and to the honoured memory of those who gave their lives to the service of their country in the cause of righteousness, liberty, and fellowship, we dedicate this Memorial, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

ADDRESS BY THE LORD BISHOP.

PRAYERS.

WE give Thee thanks, O Lord, Father Almighty, Eternal God, for all those Thy servants who waxed valiant in fight and wrought righteousness, and, counting not their life dear unto themselves, laid it down for their friends, and we pray Thee that, having fought a good fight and finished their course with joy, they may rejoice evermore with them that have come out of the great tribulation and having washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb, stand before Thy Throne, and serve Thee day and night for ever; through Him that overcame and is set down in Thy Throne, Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost now and ever and world without end. Amen.

COMFORT, O Lord, we pray Thee, all who are mourning the loss of those who are near and dear to them. Be with them in their sorrow. Support them with the knowledge of Thy love. Teach them to rest and lean on Thee. Give them faith to look beyond the troubles of this present time, and to know that neither death nor life can separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord, to Whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, now, and for ever. Amen.

MOST merciful Father, Who has been pleased to take unto Thyself the souls of those whom we now commemorate before Thee, grant unto us, who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith that, having served Thee with constancy on earth, we may be joined hereafter with Thy blessed saints in glory everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil.

Amen.

HYMN.

GOD of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle-line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget !

The tumult and the shouting dies ;
The captains and the kings depart ;
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget.

Far-called, our navies melt away ;
On dune and headland sinks the fire ;
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre !
Judge of the Nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget !

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard,
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding, calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic boast and foolish word—
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord. Amen.

At the conclusion of this hymn wreaths will be laid on the Memorial by the Chairman of the Epsom Urban District Council and a representative of the Epsom Branches of the British Legion.

The Blessing.

THE LAST POST.

THE REVEILLE.

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

GOD save our gracious King,
 Long live our noble King,
 God save the King.
 Send him victorious,
 Happy and glorious,
 Long to reign over us,
 God Save the King. Amen.
