

SOUTH STREET BUSINESSES 1861

Brief details of residential properties are included to assist in locating the businesses on the map. Properties follow the order on the 1861 census sheets (the street was not numbered in 1861, but numbers are shown below if known). It is not always clear whether individuals were operating their businesses from their home addresses.

STRAY

This person is listed as being at the end of the High Street, immediately before the enumerator went down South Street. However, other sources, including his own business advertisement, suggest that he was actually the first business on the western side of South Street, next to Mr Ruffle/Ruffell the pork butcher.

	Edward Yalden Draper, hatter, hosier and glover	EDWARD YALDEN, DRAPER, Hosier, Haberdasher & Glover, SOUTH STREET, EPSOM. GENTLEMEN'S TIES, SCARFS, SHIRTS & COLLARS, HATS & CAPS. READY-MADE CLOTHES. BB Born c.1810 Epsom. Married 1837 Sarah Hayton (c.1808-92). By 1871 they had retired to Laburnum Road. Died 12 October 1880, still at Laburnum Road. Child – James (1838 Epsom-1911 Wimbledon, married Ellen Johnstone).
